

MET INSTANT DEATH IN RAILROAD WRECK

COLLISION OF EXCURSION TRAINS NEAR ST. LOUIS.

Eight Persons Killed and Many Injured—Engine Demolished and Cars Telescoped—Negligence of Orders Given As the Cause—The List of the Dead and Injured.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 26.—Shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday forenoon two passenger trains on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, going in opposite directions, collided nearly opposite Windsor station, about thirteen miles from this city, instantly killing eight persons and injuring twenty-one.

The killed are all of St. Louis. Their names are:

ADOLPH HOHL, engineer of the accommodation train.
CHARLES MORINE.
CONRAD KUNTZ.
C. C. BLEVINS.

H. THALL.
BARNEY M'KENNA.
MISS MAUD M'KENNA, aged 14.
JOHN CARTWRIGHT.

Twenty-one persons were more or less injured, but it is thought not one will die. The injured are:

Ferdinand Lange, St. Louis; internal injuries.

David Garrety, St. Louis; head cut and legs bruised.

J. E. Riblet, St. Louis; hips and legs injured.

Charles R. Milentz, St. Louis; scalp wounds.

Frank Hasler, St. Louis, late of Springfield, Mo., fireman on excursion train; spinal cord injured and hurt internally.

Mrs. J. B. McDaniel, St. Louis; slightly injured.

George Wulff of Kirkwood, conductor on suburban train; hips injured and body bruised.

Robert Mulholland, Spring Park, brakeman on suburban train; slightly injured.

George Atwood, St. Louis, conductor on suburban train; slightly injured.

Joseph A. Dryden, Springfield, Mo., engineer excursion train; skull fractured and badly scalded.

A. K. Smith, Valley Park, baggage-man on suburban train; head cut and arms injured.

Frederick Miller, Valley Park, fireman on suburban train; legs injured and badly scalded.

Mrs. A. K. Smith, Valley Park; injured by shock.

Matt Wapplerhorst, Valley Park; slightly injured.

Peter Hill, St. Louis; face cut and badly bruised.

Robert Lagen, William Suter, Henry Larborg, Louis Hunt, Henry M'Michael.

Mrs. Rose Hill, St. Louis; more or less injured.

The collision occurred between the second section of an excursion train bound west and the "Frisco" Valley Park accommodation. The excursion train was bound for St. James, Mo., 100 miles west of St. Louis, where the Missouri Home for Aged Veterans was dedicated under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief corps. The first section had gone through safely, and the second, which consisted of eleven coaches heavily laden with Grand Army of the Republic men, their wives and children, left St. Louis about 9 o'clock. According to J. D. Dishman, the telegraph operator and station agent at Spring Park, the second section should have stopped at that place. Instead of doing so it passed by the station, and soon after met the accommodation coming down grade at full speed.

Engineer Hohl of the accommodation was not aware that the second section was on the road, and in trying to make the switch at Kirkwood crashed into the ill-fated train in a cut just thirteen miles from the St. Louis union station. There was only one car, a combination baggage and coach, on Engineer Hohl's train, but the collision was terrific, both engines being demolished and a number of cars telescoped. The wreckage was piled high on the track, and above the sound of escaping steam could be heard the cries of the frightened and injured passengers.

Next the engine of the excursion train was the commissary car, filled with refreshments. Almost all in this car were either killed or injured. This and the next car, in which were seventy passengers, suffered the worst damage, and most of the killed and injured were taken from them. Engineer Hohl of the accommodation, which was running on time, was killed, and his fireman, Frank Hasler, badly injured. Doctors from surrounding towns hurried to the scene and rendered what assistance they could to the suffering, who were transported to a place of safety.

Kentucky Toll-gates Stormed.
Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 26.—The toll-gate raiders have not left a toll-gate on a single pike in Franklin county undisturbed. On Saturday night a mob of about one hundred men went down the Lawrenceburg pike, destroying all the toll-gates on the way to Frankfort. They then went out the Louisville pike from Frankfort, laying to the ground the gates as they rode along in the moonlight and defying interference by the toll-gate keepers. Detectives have been put to work on the case and the next meeting of the Frankfort county grand jury is expected to turn up some surprises.

WORKERS RUN MILL.

French Strikers Start Their Own Glass Works.

Albi, France, Oct. 26.—Great festivities attended the opening Sunday of the co-operative glass factory, which has been put up by the former strikers of the Carmaux glass works. The strike, which grew out of the discharge of a member of the glass workers' union, was transformed into a lock-out when the men notified the management of their willingness to return to work. M. Jaures declared that the present movement had founded a social revolution and marked the downfall of capitalism. The Paris correspondent of the Times, writing of the opening of the co-operative glass factory at Albi, says that the scheme is that all of the profits of the glass works shall be used for a socialist propaganda. The socialistic press in this connection affirm that the moment is a critical one for the workmen of France.

All Eyes on Russia and Britain.
Vienna, Oct. 26.—The Neue Freie Presse publishes an interview from a Hamburg correspondent with a statesman, who is understood to be Prince Bismarck, in which he asserted that the czar's visit to France was necessary for the maintenance of the relations hitherto existing between France and Russia, and to keep the French in good humor. From the point of view of the triple alliance, he said, the visit increases the existing guarantees of peace. The overspreading question before the world, he concluded, is the Russo-British antagonism.

Carlisle's Welcome Cordial.
Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 26.—Secretary Carlisle delivered the second of his Kentucky campaign speeches in this city Saturday afternoon. His reception was entirely cordial and free from any attempt at insult or interference. For an hour and a half Mr. Carlisle was listened to with rapt attention, and was enthusiastically applauded. When he had concluded John S. Rhea, silver candidate for congress in the Third district, essayed to answer him in the park in front of the opera house, but he met with little sympathy.

Six Prisoners Break Jail.
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 26.—Another jail delivery took place last night at the county jail. Six persons escaped. Seven prisoners made their escape on last Christmas day.

M'KINLEY DRAWS CROWDS TO HIS HOME, BRYAN DRAWS CROWDS TO A TRAIN

MAJOR M'KINLEY IN SPLENDID CONDITION.

Hard Work of the Past Few Days Has Had No Bad Effect On the Republican Nominee—Many Delegations in Canton Saturday—Republican News.

Canton, O., Oct. 26.—Saturday's visitors again broke the record in long-distance parties and variety of delegations. Business men and farmers came from New York; farmers, railroad men and workmen called by thousands from Missouri, Iowa and Kansas. There were school teachers, stenographers, iron, steel and tin workers; miners, Afro-Americans, first voters, veterans, young women and old women. From early dawn until late at night the McKinley home was surrounded with a continuous jam, re-enacting the exciting scenes of the constant crush of other days. Maj. McKinley spoke with unusual fervor all day.

Speech-making will continue at the McKinley home up to the very eve of election. To-day the opening of the last week of the campaign finds Maj. McKinley, to all outward appearances at least, equal to as hard work as he has experienced at any time during the campaign.

The week's programme opens with six delegations for to-day, fifteen for the succeeding days of the week, and a large number of others only partially arranged. Many of the visitors will be long-distance pilgrims, to-day bringing a party from Boston, one from New Jersey and two from Indiana. The week will also include "college day" and "Youngstown (Ohio) day," on both of which occasions large crowds are expected.

Altogether, it is estimated that not less than 10,000 persons heard the speakers. Gen. Daniel Sickles who made the principal address, said: "In the west we found the tramps unanimously for Bryan. His strength among tramps is simply overwhelming. I don't know any one who has surpassed Bryan in recent years but Coxey." He concluded with a volley of hot shot for Gov. Altgeld. He said: "I regard the defeat of that man Altgeld second only in importance to the election of McKinley."

One of the remarkable features of both speeches was the fact that Mr. Reed did not mention the name of Maj. McKinley.

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 26.—News has been received of an important decision by the Supreme Court of Canada, which may result in the repayment of all license fees paid by American fishermen since the abrogation of the treaty of Washington for licenses issued under the modus vivendi. These licenses, it is estimated, amount to over $70,000 a year.

MR. BRYAN RESTS AT HIS OLD COLLEGE HOME.

Quiet Sunday Enjoyed By the Democratic Nominee—Mr. Watson Declares He Will Not Withdraw From the Ticket—General News For the Popocrats.

Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 26.—It was a day of quiet and rest that William Jennings Bryan spent in this city Sunday, where for six years he prepared himself for his after life. In the morning he attended services at the State Street Presbyterian Church, and listened to a sermon by the Rev. A. B. Morris.

Mr. Bryan spent the day at the home of Dr. Hiram K. Jones, where he lived during his residence in this city. There were few callers, but outside the house a large crowd gathered and stared at the few visitors who were admitted. To-day Mr. Bryan will address the students of the college in which he studied. At 2 o'clock he will address a large mass-meeting in the city park on the issues of the day. He will depart for Alton at 4:30 o'clock, arriving there at 6:30 o'clock, and will put in a good share of the next four hours expounding free-silver doctrine. At 10:30 o'clock he leaves for Lincoln, arriving there Tuesday morning.

Mr. Bryan began his work Saturday at Ottawa, speaking to a big audience before 8 o'clock a. m. At LaSalle he spoke from a flat car from the rear of his train. Speeches were made at Ladd and Galva to large audiences. Rock Island and Moline joined in the demonstrations to the triple nominee. Vice-President Stevenson was also an attraction, and shared the honors. There were short stops at Alpha and Alexis and at Monmouth. Large crowds greeted the candidate at Bushnell and Macomb and Camp Point. Arrived at Quincy, three large audiences were addressed by Mr. Bryan at night. There had been a meeting during the day of free silverites, and at night the crowds of the city were swelled by excursionists from places forty miles away. Immediately after the last speech Mr. Bryan took his car and started for Jacksonville.

BUTLER ISSUES AN ADDRESS.

Populist Chairman Urges His Party to Stand by Mr. Bryan.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The Populist national committee, through its chairman, Senator Butler, has issued an official address to members of the people's party, urging them loyally to support Bryan and follow his banner wherever it leads. It urges the people's party not to be discouraged by the fact that there are two candidates for Vice-President in the field, marching under Bryan's banner. It says there will be two months between the election and the casting of the votes by the electors, and that there is surely wisdom enough in the two parties which support Bryan to adjust that complication satisfactorily to all. It says people's party brethren need have no fear this campaign will destroy the people's party; that its principles are right, and therefore immortal.

Says He Will Not Withdraw from the Ticket Even to Help Bryan.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 26.—A. W. Howard, populist congressman from the Seventh Alabama district, who nominated Thomas E. Watson for vice president at the populist national convention, said yesterday that in private conversation Mr. Watson told him that no matter how much Senators Jones and Butler endeavored to show him that his withdrawal would benefit Bryan, he would not withdraw. He said that he felt that the autonomy of his party depended upon his remaining in the race, and that before he would come down he would suffer himself to be led to the block and be beheaded.

Plenty of Gold in London.

London, Oct. 26.—The advance in the bank rate has not led to an advance in outside quotations because there was an ample supply of available funds. The plethora has been increased during the week by the release of £500,000 of Japanese money, with a probable £1,000,000 more in a few days. There is, however, some indication that the bank is borrowing on stock in order to make its quotations more effective in checking the outflow of gold.

Now, however, everything is shipshape on board. At an early date she will steam over to Sausalito, and if there is no fog she will pass out of the Golden Gate. If there is fog she will wait for favorable conditions. It is reported that the battleship will test her armament while outside.

WHAT THE PASTORS TOLD THEIR FLOCKS

THE NEWS GATHERED IN LOCAL CHURCHES.

Rev. V. E. Southworth, of All Souls, Lectures on "The Divinity of Jesus"—Rev. E. H. Pence Preaches at the Presbyterian Church—Some Baptist Notes.

At "All Souls, The People's Church," yesterday, R. V. Mr. Southworth gave a lecture on "The Divinity of Jesus." No one who heard him can any longer speak of liberals as not believing in Jesus. We print a portion of his lecture:

Jesus realized the identity of the divine and the human. He identified himself with God. He said: "I and my Father are one." "My Father is greater than I," but we are one—"one" in sympathy, "one" in love of truth and righteousness, and "one" in our desire for the spiritual perfection of mankind.

Jesus understood God, not as the theologians have attempted to picture Him. Not as a great judge dealing out vindictive penalties to a fallen world; he understood God as infinite wisdom and goodness, infinite fatherhood, infinite love.

"God is spirit;" to worship God does not mean to offer sacrifices and prayers in the temple. "Neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem shall ye worship the Father."

The true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth. God is spirit; they that worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth.

The Greatest Religious Idea.

God is the infinite unity of pure spirit, to which all individuals belong—this is the greatest religious idea ever enunciated. This is the sublimest teaching of Jesus. Jesus understood that purity of heart and kindness and sincerity are the avenues through which a consciousness of God is awakened in the soul of man—"God is spirit."

He is the spirit of the good and true and beautiful. And when we love the good and the true and the beautiful, when we give our lives to those things, when we live for them and are ready to die for them, like Jesus we are one with God. Just in proportion as a man surrenders his life freely to the service of that which is good and true and beautiful, just in so far as his dormant rationality and divinity quickened, and he finds himself face to face with the inmost God. As I understand it this is what Jesus meant when he said: "The pure in heart shall see God."

The kingdom of God in us must be realized as personal through the exercise of our own spiritual faculties. This inner consciousness of our personal union and communion with God is the vital element, the core of religion as Jesus taught it. Jesus was divine because he was pure in heart, because he saw God within him as an infinite spiritual power to uplift and direct his life. He discovered that his humanity "pertained to, was of the nature of, and proceeded from God." He was conscious that "his body was the temple of the Holy Spirit" and that "the spirit within him was the spirit of God." He was one of the first to feel that the life of God in the soul of man is a reality.

It was this that made him the man he was. It was this that enabled him to live such a kindly, simple and open life. It was this that kept him firm and fearless in the face of cruelty and death.

Jesus Was Divine.

Because he realized God as a divine fact in his own soul, he was lifted up and glorified, and made great to help the world.

According to the customary view, which I myself used to hold, Jesus was divine to the exclusion of everyone else. He, and he only, was in possession of this God-spirit within. His relation to deity was so intimate as to shut out all other human souls. He exhausted divinity; monopolized it. He was divine, but every body else was depraved. Jesus was the son of God; the rest of us were children of sin.

I do not any longer believe such things; I do not believe that Jesus exhausted the divine capabilities of human nature. He only helped to indicate how inexhaustible is God, and how rich in divine potencies humanity is. God is spirit, as much today as He was then; as much in Janesville as he was in Nazareth; as ready to be manifested in your character and life, as in the character and life of the radiant Jewish peasant.

The divinity of Jesus was a reality because he lived a true life. Your divinity is a possibility and you may make it real, if you will live a true life. "Jesus appreciated the worth of a man." He understood how infinite is the closeness of man and God. He saw that man becomes one with God by doing what is right and true. "He was true to what is best in you and me." He did not allow his moral nature to stagnate.

He did not wait to be "popular." He did not sell his soul to the devil of personal gain or sordid pleasure. He was a clean, true, open, upright man and we worship him as God and I think we do well. A sweeter, more humane and tender God the world has never known.

I had rather a hundred times worship such a man than bend in fear before the awful judge about whom theologians knew so much. Jesus, the divine man, helps me to realize that God is not off in the skies yonder scowling at me; but that he is here, a living power which I may use to light my life to heights divine.

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. E. H. Pence Speaks Morning and Evening—Other Notes

Mr. Pence took for his text yesterday morning Romans 8:3. God had a supreme purpose in making man. Our text reveals his purpose. He used the noblest means he had at hand to accomplish what he willed—a perfect man. God made matter, and compressed within it a system of physical laws. The destiny of matter was to evolve a universe. God made man and placed within him unlimited possibilities. The first man instead of being the product of evolution was the starting point of evolution. He was not a human being until he received a moral and spiritual nature. God gave him a law written upon his heart by which to develop it. That was the moral law. We know not to what things we might have attained had he proved equal to the high possibilities before him. When we see the perfect development of manhood in Jesus of Nazareth, we are reminded of what Adam might have been in some measure had he not sinned. From the records, we should think that Adam sinned at the first temptation. Had he resisted that temptation the next would have had less power, and the third still less.

A Daily Experience.

That is our experience every day, and if we make the start, we find that it requires no great number of resistances to reduce the force of temptation to a minimum. God was not satisfied until his law had been embodied. The naked thought of Raphael's mind of his Madonna was beautiful, but not to be compared to the beauty of the incarnation he gave it in his painting. Moral law was a thing of no particular utility until it was worked into human life, into human character. God used the noblest tools he had yet conceived to accomplish his purpose, the purpose to make an ideal man. And yet the ideal of God's was the one thing that was capable of thwarting it. It was the first man who let the devil into the world, and the door has never been shut since that remote chapter in man's history. At the start Adam was innocent, but it was not a mere innocent being that God wanted. He wanted a virtuous being. By heredity we receive the impulse to sin.

How To Root Out Sinfulness.

We are born with a strong proclivity to violate what we feel to be right, but in Christ we can secure a counter impulse, not only as strong, but vastly stronger. The sinfulness in your life can only be rooted out by planting and cultivating righteousness as a principle of your life. Are there mysteries here? Thank God for it. They but measure the boundlessness of God's plan for us—the height of it, the depth of it. If we could understand it all, there would not be much for us to hope for or long after. Thank God the mysteries are profound.

Christian Endeavor.—My favorite proverb was the topic of the Christian Endeavor meeting, and it was proved that in the proverbs of Solomon we have a rich store of rules for daily living. Mr. Pomeroy was present, and spoke for a short time in behalf of the Door of Hope Mission.

The monthly meeting of the Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Blair, 57 South Jackson street, at 6:45 Friday evening.

The Christian Endeavors will give a Halloween social at the church parlors Friday evening, October 30.

SUNDAY MEETINGS AT THE JAIL.

Prisoners Glad to Hear the Word—Services to be Held Regularly.

The first of a series of jail meetings was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Mrs. E. Yates and Miss Mary Kimball. It was very successful.

"The prisoners were very attentive and respectful" said Miss Kimball this morning. "They joined in the singing and urged us to come again."

"Young McKee was especially affected. He shook my hand and told how much he regretted that he had not been led before to choose a better life."

The meetings are to be held each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

At the Baptist Church.

Dr. Hodge took for his theme at the Baptist church yesterday morning, "Soul Winning," his text being Prov. 11:30. "He that winneth souls is wise." He made a strong appeal to all Christians to be soul winners.

Rev. C. W. Palmer, a veteran evangelist, spoke at the evening service his theme being, "Salvation in the Blood of the Lamb." At the close of the sermon an after meeting was held at which a number signified their purpose to serve God.

Evangelistic meetings will be held in the church parlors on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The Christian Culture class will meet in the church parlors this evening at 7:30. All wishing to know more about the course of study are invited to be present.

"Are we doing our best?" was the topic of the Endeavor meeting. The work of each committee was briefly reviewed by the various chairmen.

GREW GREY IN CELL IN STATE PRISON

DR. DUVAL BREATHE FREE AIR AT LAST.

His Release Marks the Close of One of the Most Interesting Chapters in Wisconsin Criminal History—Something About the Crime For Which He Was Sentenced.

The pardon of Dr. William Duval by Gov. Upham last Tuesday marks the close of one of the most interesting chapters in Wisconsin criminal history. For nearly twenty-six years Duval has not breathed the pure air of freedom.

Since the autumn of 1870 the walls and bars of the State prison have held him fast. This week the governor concluded that the ends of justice had been satisfied and Duval was given his liberty. He has gone to the home of an only daughter in Illinois to pass his declining years.

When the doors of the Waupun prison were closed against him he had just passed the fortieth milestone of his life and was in the flower of his strength and manhood. He was a tall, handsome, fine-appearing man. He left the prison this week broken in health and spirit. His form is bent, his raven locks have changed to white. The weight of his years of confinement rest heavily upon him and his life's journey is nearly ended.

Was Married Four Times.

Duval's case is an interesting one. In the fall of 1870 he was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the State prison for the murder of his wife, by William Penn Lyon, then judge of the First Judicial circuit of Wisconsin. He was a traveling magnetic healer and in the course of his journeys reached Janesville in 1868. Duval had been married four times and had three children, two boys and a girl. Three of his wives were dead at this time, and two of them, it is said, died under rather suspicious circumstances. He had been married only a few months when he went to Janesville, accompanied by his wife and children. Mrs. Duval No. 4, was a young and unsophisticated girl, the daughter of a farmer, who had been captured by the handsome doctor, whose manner and deportment was model, and had married him.

Convicted of Wife Murder.

Soon after reaching Janesville she was taken suddenly sick and died. Foul play being suspected, an autopsy was held. Large quantities of strychnine were found in her stomach. Dr. Duval was arrested, and charged with the crime. The news that he had three former wives, two of whom had died suddenly, spread like wildfire, and feeling against the man was strong in Janesville at the time. For this reason Judge Lyon tried the case in Elkhorn. It was a long and hard-fought case, lasting for a week or more. District Attorney H. A. Patterson was assisted in his prosecution by J. R. Bennett, no circuit judge. The defense was conducted by the late William Ebbetts. The evidence against Duval was purely circumstantial, but was sufficiently strong to convict. Duval's defense was that the woman was somewhat unbalanced, and that in a fit of temporary insanity, she committed suicide. The jury was out but a few hours and returned with a verdict of guilty. There was some question in the mind of Judge Lyon as to the validity of the indictment, and he certified the matter up to the supreme court. In the fall of 1870 the court handed down an opinion that the indictment was legal. Duval was then brought before Judge Lyon in Elkhorn, for sentence. When asked if he had anything to say, he pulled a roll of manuscript from his pocket and began to plead his cause. For more than two hours he read his statement to the court. Judge Lyon had to catch a train, and had to wait for the reading before the prisoner was half through. He was then sentenced to the state prison for life.

Upon Judge Lyon's Request.

Every governor since C. C. Washburn has been petitioned to pardon Duval. Judge Lyon has talked with every executive since that time about the case, but they refused a pardon unless he would say there were doubts about the man's guilt. The judge would not go behind the verdict of the jury in this regard. A daughter of Duval, who was only twelve years old when her father was sentenced, has persistently advocated his cause. When Judge Lyon was in California he heard that Duval was sick and that he could live but a few years. He thereupon wrote a letter to Governor Upham setting forth that he thought the ends of justice had been answered and that the man ought to be pardoned. Although Judge Lyon has talked with many executives in regard to the case, Governor Upham is the first whom he has directly requested to issue a pardon.

Duval is now about seventy years old and of late years has become quite religious, in the confidence of a number of the chaplains of the state prison, who have been there from time to time. He has written much doggerel, and some of his many petitions for executive clemency are in verse.

GOD HATES A DOLLAR THAT IS DISHONEST

"DUTY OF CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP" OUTLINED.

Rev. Dr. Platts, of Milton, Preaches For Public and Private Honesty—Law Abiding and Honorable Citizens Should Condemn All That Is Wrong—Other County News.

(THE GAZETTE AGENCY, W. W. CLARK, Manager, Milton, Wis., Oct. 25, 1896.)

Rev. Dr. Platts preached on "The Duties of Christian Citizenship," at the Seventh-Day Baptist church Saturday morning, before a large congregation. His opening remarks were devoted to the duty of Christians to take an active part in politics, beginning in the primary, and said that if the politics of the country were dishonest and unclean, as some voters allege, but which he did not assert, they could not clear their skirts by standing back and claiming that their hands were clean, but on the contrary, it was their province to use every effort for reform. He asked his hearers to carefully study the platforms and utterances of the candidates thereon, and if they found therein anything that savored of anarchy, sectionalism or repudiation, it was their bounden duty to vote against the nominees of that party, and as one of the candidates of the two great parties must be elected, voters are unwise to cast their votes for any of the candidates of minor parties when the issues before the people are of so great importance. That the doctor is a sound money man was evidenced by the statement that the Almighty hated a fifty cent dollar as much as he did the dishonest balances that rascally money changers used in olden times to despoil the people of their hard earned wages.

President Whitford, of Milton college lately received a letter from a populist prohibitionist, who says that "when Paul was preaching at Ephesus the people cried out for the space of three hours, 'Great is the Goddess Diana,' and now the gold men cry, 'Great is the Goddess of Gold.' To this writer the president replied as follows: Your reference to the worship of Diana, as mentioned in the nineteenth chapter of Acts is a most unfortunate one for you and your politics in this campaign. It was a silversmith, Demetrius who fearing that the preaching of the gospel by Paul would destroy the 'no small gain' which he acquired by making 'silver shrines for Diana' said to his fellow 'craftsmen' and other 'workmen of like occupation,' 'Sirs, Ye know that by this craft we have our wealth,' and also 'there was danger that the temple of the great Goddess Diana should be despised.' So he incited the ignorant and fanatical mob to burrah. 'Great is Diana of the Ephesians.' It was his selfish purpose, in crying out for preserving the worship of this goddess, to maintain and strengthen better his ill-gotten business in manufacturing and selling to these people his silver images of the temple of Diana. There was no gold in the transaction, it was all for the interest of silver. So the silver mine and the silver bullion owners in this country appeal to the populist democrats and populist prohibitionists to protect their wealth and add a few more million dollars to their already large and well filled pockets. Will you help by your vote to carry out such an infamous project, now supported by the Anarchist Altgeld, the secessionist Tillman, and the demagogue Bryan?

RALLY AT CLINTON WAS A NOTABLE ONE

RINGING SPEECH BY CAPT. NORCROSS.

J. G. Monahan Did Not Arrive In Time, So the Janesville Attorney Was Sent In His Place—McKinley and Hobart Quartette Cheered—Oyster Supper Served.

It is safe to say that one of the most enthusiastic republican meetings of the campaign in Rock county, was the one held in Clinton, Saturday night. Hon. J. G. Monahan expected to be present to address the meeting, but was delayed five hours en route from North Dakota, in consequence of a railway wreck. Being apprised of this fact, W. A. Mayhew and others wired Chairman Venkirk for a substitute, and Captain Pily Norcross was sent. By prior arrangement Colonel Kimberley and his famous McKinley and Hobart quartet were present, to gether with others from Janesville. The party were met in Clinton by a drum corps, many torchlights and a vast crowd of citizens. Wyman's opera house could not hold the crowd. Mr. Mayhew, as chairman of the meeting proved himself the right man in the right place. After a fitting and very eloquent talk of five minutes, Mr. Mayhew introduced the quartette. At the close of their selection the encore who responded to heartily. As speaker, Capt. Norcross held the steady attention of the splendid audience for an hour and forty-five minutes and it was the expressed sentiment of very many capable of judging that his effort was superb. The people went wild over the Janesville singers. After the meeting the best story tellers were called out, to the delight of all. An oyster supper was given the Janesville people, by Mr. Mayhew, and others, and when the time arrived for departure, it was said that the McKinley and Hobart gathering at Clinton was a grand success.

W. A. MAYHEW, [Chairman of the Meeting.]

Cupid breaks his bow at the sight of a face full of pimples and blotches. Hollow cheeks, sunken eyes, and a sallow complexion will defy his best intentions. Beauty is more than skin deep. The skin is merely the surface on which is written in plain characters the condition of the body.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritious food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients it enriches the blood and so makes solid, healthy flesh. It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp, simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood. Sold by all medicine dealers.

1759—George James Danton, the famous French revolutionist, was born at Arcis-sur-Aube, guillotined at Paris, April 5, 1794. While minister of justice Danton announced that in order to stop the progress of the Prussian army of invasion "we must strike the royalists with terror." Acting upon the suggestion, the mob broke into the prisons and engaged in dreadful massacres. It was Danton who said, speaking of the captive king: "We have no right to be his judges, it is true. Well, we will kill him."

ent of politics, creeds, nationalities or color. It stands as an emblem left by our Fathers at a cost of blood and treasure that is as immeasurable as space. Forever shall it wave. The exercises at the flag raising will not not exceed an hour's time. There will be an address by the Hon. Phil Noyes. Mrs. A. P. E. D. MILLER SAID TO BE IN IT

Former Janesville Man's Name Figures In the Papers

A special from La Porte, Ind., to the Chicago Daily News says: "A sensation has been caused here by the unearthing of an alleged conspiracy to kidnap Charles E. Russell of this city, who has been identified with Chicago men in business enterprises. E. D.
Miller and a Mr. Libby of Chicago, are stated to be parties to the plot.

"Mr. Libby alleges that he was involved into the purchase of $20,000 of worthless stock in the Venezuelan Telephone company, while Miller states that Russell sold him fraudulent stock in oil well interests in Huntington county in that state. Chicago officers attempted to lure Russell from his residence at a late hour at night, but the latter armed himself and threatened to fire to kill if an entrance was attempted. Russell claims that the purpose of the Chicago officers was to take him forcibly to Chicago, where a plot to wreck his business would be carried into execution."

12:40 p. m.—Left for Chicago.

Such was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Madison.

Smith is not their real name it is said, but they said it was Smith, so Smith will answer.

They came to Janesville Saturday night. In the meantime local police had received word to arrest them for "jumping a board bill." Officer Hogan met them at the train, and took them in charge. Janesville friends then appeared and agreed to be responsible for the Madison hotel man's bill—$45.

The couple were then taken to the Park hotel, and a well known attorney hired to look after their case.

Another Officer Came

Then the couple thought their trouble was over but it was not to be.

A minion of the law with a Madison warrant in his pocket appeared upon the scene and arresting Mr. Smith, took him to Madison on the first train. At the Capital City the matter was straightened out and Mr. Smith returned to Janesville this noon. He and his wife then took their departure for Chicago.

Smith has been working in a Madison bicycle factory and was enroute for Denver to follow the same occupation when the police stopped him.

Peter Murry of Beloit, who broke his wife's sewing machine, is in jail here for sixty days.

James Quigley, who par-ook too freely of Edgerton whisky, is in jail for thirty days, while Peter Walden, of the same city, is down for fifteen days for drunkenness.

ELECTION NOTICE.

TO THE ELECTORS OF ROCK COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the third day of November, 1896, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its appropriate column and the question submitted to a vote are stated below:

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names and initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark X, under the party designation, printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all of the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased or pasted over a printed name. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark, X after the name of each candidate he does desire to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any other person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability, he is unable to mark his ballot, can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

W. J. MCINTYRE, County Clerk.

If you desire to vote an entire party ticket, make a cross mark in the square under party designation at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote for all the ticket, except particular persons, erase their names, or mark opposite the names of the candidate you desire to vote for in another column, if it be there, or write in the name you wish to vote for. If you desire to vote for candidates on different tickets, erase the names of the candidates you do not wish to vote for and make a cross (X) opposite and after the name of the candidate you desire to vote for, or write his name in the blank space under the name erased.
